SmartReading-Mandarin Global Reading Competition

Global Reading Challenge, a new trend in Chinese learning !

Carefully created by Professor Song Yaoting's team at National Taiwan Normal University, the " Global SmartReading Contest" is designed for learners of Chinese around the world, making Chinese reading smarter and more fun!

The competition uses the " SmartReading-Mandarin " system, which is like a Chinese coach. Through AI, it accurately diagnoses reading levels and recommends book lists , post-reading assessments , and badge tasks of just the right difficulty level , so that children can read with a sense of accomplishment and learn more motivated!

Through a month-long reading task , participants develop independent learning and reading habits , and comprehensively improve their Chinese proficiency!

Come join this global reading challenge and embark on a fun and powerful Chinese learning journey!

👤 Who is it suitable for?

- ✓ Learners whose native language is not Chinese at home and abroad
- ✓ Learners in international schools, bilingual schools, experimental education, and immersion programs
- ✓ Teachers or parents who want to help students find the "right books" and establish reading habits.

SmartReading-Mandarin Global Reading Competition Process

SmartReading-Mandarin - Reading Tasks

- Based on the child's book selection, reading performance, and completion of assessments . These scores are accumulated to form personal reading points, which serve as an important basis for the competition.
- It allows teachers to clearly understand students' reading habits, and also allows children to have a greater sense of direction and accomplishment during the reading process!
- It's not just about who reads more, but who reads better, more attentively, and with more perseverance!

Combining listening and reading with post - reading challenges
Make reading a fulfilling experience !

" When I encounter articles that I don't understand, I use SRM 's text-to-speech function to listen to them repeatedly to help me understand the content. I also enjoy taking quizzes after reading a book, and I feel a great sense of accomplishment when I answer the questions ."

Progress is visible!

System reports motivate me to continue.

" SRM 's reading quizzes help me understand my Chinese reading level. Seeing the progress through the system reports motivates me to continue reading, and my reading ability has improved without me even realizing it."
